Recovering from assault

World Archery development and education director Pascal Colmaire is recovering after being the victim of a violent assault in Uganda where he was delivering an Olympic Solidarity level two coaching course in the capital city of Kampala. Pascal was attacked on the last evening of the course, 3 September, while walking nearby his hotel, and was left with several skull fractures and damaged eyesight.

Office updates

There have been several changes in the development department due to Pascal's absence during his recovery.

Melany Postigo, who was working in the World Archery Excellence Centre and spending half of her time on development and education projects, has transferred to a full-time role at the World Archery office as development projects coordinator. She is now responsible for all Olympic Solidarity matters and is coordinating the coaching seminar at the Centre. Her email address is mpostigo@archery.sport.

Carlos Freitas, who was already assisting Pascal with the online training system, will now coordinate the education project with the World Academy of Sport. He can be reached at education@archery.sport. (Melany will assist him with the seminar and Jaekyung Lee with the online system access.)

Cécile Tosetti has joined the office as events coordinator. She will assist the new head of events and marketing, Thomas Aubert, and head of events and logistics, Fernando Suarez, in the department's day-to-day operations. Her email address is ctosetti@archery.sport.

Dot sport

World Archery's primary domain name is being changed to .sport. The website 'worldarchery.org' and email addresses ending '@archery.org' will remain active but going forward, the primary URL will be 'worldarchery.sport' and all office emails will end with '@archery.sport'.

Obituary

Jean-Michel Piquet

Long-time Belgian international recurve archer Jean-Michel Piquet died on Friday 27 September 2019. The 48-year-old shot at international tournaments until 2007 and also organised national level events in Belgium. Jean-Michel's funeral will take place on Wednesday 2 October 2019.

World Archery Americas

World Archery Americas will hold the 2021 World Games continental qualification tournament during the world ranking event in Medellin on 1-7 June 2020.

The same event will host qualifier for the first Pan American Youth Games, also due to take place in 2021 in the Colombian city of Cali.

The continental qualifier for the Olympic and Paralympic Games will take place during the Pan American and Parapan American Championships in March in Monterrey, Mexico.

Achievements

Longines Prize

USA compounders Braden Gellenthien and Alexis Ruiz won the 2019 Longines Prize for Precision awards after shooting 442 and 409 10s in qualification and individual matchplay across the Hyundai Archery World Cup season. The Prize for Precision is awarded annually to the most accurate archers. It is the second time that Braden has won the award. The first was in 2013.

Nations Award

The USA finished top of the 2019 Hyundai Archery World Cup nations ranking to win the annual nations award for a record seventh time since the introduction of the international circuit in 2006. Korea was second and Turkey came third. The ranking combines all the points won by a country's individual athletes and teams over the course of a single World Cup season.

World records

Casey Kaufhold's score of 675 out of a possible 720 points for the 72-arrow 70-metre ranking round has been officially ratified as a new recurve junior women's world record. Kaufhold, 15, shot the score on 8 September 2019 in Annville, USA. She is the first archer from outside of Korea to hold the record. Five more double qualification records were set at the same tournament and several others over the past two months.

Moscow 2019

The international archery season came to a close at the 2019 Hyundai Archery World Cup Final. Thirty-two of the world's best athletes took to the arena next to Luzhniki Stadium in Moscow on 6-7 September. Colombia's Sara Lopez and Brady Ellison each went on to win a record fifth Hyundai Archery World Cup Champion crown.

On compound Friday, Lopez beat World Archery Champion Natalia Avdeeva of Russia, 149-139, to take the women's gold in Moscow. Dutch world number two Mike Schloesser defeated world number one Braden Gellenthien of the USA, 147-144, to take the compound men's crown.

On the second day of competition, world number one Kang Chae Young beat Chinese Taipei's Tan Ya-Ting, 6-4, to win the recurve women's gold medal in Moscow at her World Cup Final debut.

Brady Ellison completed an incredible season where he became world champion, broke the 70-metre ranking round world record and rose to the top spot in the world rankings, with a 6-2 victory over Mauro Nespoli in Moscow.

It is the first time since 2019 that archers from four different countries have won the circuit titles.

Asia Cup 2019

Ruman Shana defeated Shi Zhenqi of China to take recurve men’s gold at the third leg of the 2019 Asia Cup in the Philippines and become the first archer from Bangladesh to win a continental tournament in five years. The 24-year-old won three medals in total in Clark City. China won the other four gold medals available on recurve finals day at the Asia Cup.

Malaysia and Australia collected the compound titles. Aisyah Norazam and Juwaidi Mazuki won the individual compound titles as Malaysia totalled 10 podiums – and collected four golds. Malaysia finished second in the medal table behind China, which won four gold medals during recurve finals. Bangladesh was third thanks to Ruman Shana’s recurve men’s gold.

The competition was also the test event for the upcoming Southeast Asian Games.

Indoor World Series

Registration is now open for all six of the events on the calendar of the 2020 Indoor Archery World Series. This upcoming indoor season also includes stops in Macau, Luxembourg, Rome, Sydney and Las Vegas. The tournaments are open entry, meaning archers do not have to be a member of a national team to compete. Registration for the first five events is completed through World Archery’s extranet. Entries for the Vegas Shoot are accepted through the tournament’s official website.

Clean Sport

Prohibited list 2020

The World Anti-Doping Agency is the independent organisation tasked with protecting the integrity of sport against doping. It is responsible for the World Anti-Doping Code and each year releases an updated list of substances that are banned in and out of competition. The list applies to all events held under World Archery rules.

Communication of sanction

French archer Jonathan Giocondi has been suspended under clean sport rules. The athlete was found in violation of Article 34.2.1 of the World Archery Anti-Doping Rules after testing positive for the prohibited substance Atenolol, which belongs to the beta-blocker class of the World Anti-Doping Agency prohibited list.
