"Conflict of interest". The fact that World Archery official is associated with another organisation in the sport such as a Member Association does not in and of itself constitute a conflict of interest. The following is a non-exhaustive list of examples of circumstances in which conflicts of interest could arise: personal and/or material involvement as an employee, contractor, director, trustee, shareholder, partner or other position with suppliers to World Archery, sponsors, broadcasters, or other parties contracting with World Archery or any other organisation or person likely to benefit from the assistance of World Archery (such as a subsidy, approval or election).

16. If you are successful in this position, please describe the ideas, projects and activities you plan to implement for World Archery

The Worldcups are the breeding ground for exciting new ideas and sometimes new or changed formats. How can we evolve our sport even further to stay exciting for audience (live and online) but also for the athletes themselves (and their coaching staff).

For compound in particular, an exciting period lies ahead. We are hoping for the introduction of compound at the Olympics of 2028. This will give a huge boost to the compound indoor discipline and most likely new coaching challenges in the coming years.

I will do my best to combine my experience as researcher as well as my experience in coaching at international competition to help in these areas and represent coaches.
