All participants must follow the health rules laid down by local and national authorities as well as those specific to the sport.

Any participant who feels unwell should not attend.

All participants should check their health status regularly.

As of May 31, 2021, Ecuador's entry and exit protocols are:

By order of the National Emergency Operations Committee (COE) all passengers entering Ecuador through any of the authorized points of entry, without exception, must present a mandatory RT-PCR test or printed negative antigen test (original and duplicate), performed up to three (3) days before arrival in Ecuador or the printed COVID-19 vaccination card or its equivalent (original and duplicate), with the complete schema.

In addition, the National COE has indicated that passengers whose point of origin, stopover or transit is Brazil must undergo mandatory quarantine for 10 days in hotels authorized by the Ministry of Tourism, regardless of the result of a COVID-19 test. This provision is effective as of April 8, 2021 at 11:59 p.m.

For admission you must also fill out the Traveler's Health Declaration Form that you can download from https://www.cancilleria.gob.ec/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/formulario_de_salud_del_viajero_revisado.pdf.pdf 1-1.pdf

Authorities in Ecuador do not request COVID-19 testing to leave the country. You only need your usual travel documentation and mandatory mask-wearing. However, we recommend that you inform your airline about the provisions in place to enter or leave your destination country, including check-in requirements.

For more information or requirements update visit the websites:

- <https://www.gestionderiesgos.gob.ec/coe-nacional/>

On October 8 and 9, sampling services for COVID tests will be available for those participants who require this test to return to their country. COVID-19 tests have a cost of:

- RT-PCR: $60
- COVID19 antigens: $40

These prices may vary according to the prices that are established on that date. The coordination for the tests will be carried out upon the arrival of the delegations.
