

13th African Archery Championships 08-12 November 2023, Nabeul (TUN)

Version 1.1 (09 08 2023)

TO ALL World Archery Africa Member Associations

Dear President / Secretary General,

As Chair of the Local Organising Committee (LOC) of the 13th African Archery Championships and the Continental Qualifier for Paris 2024 which will be held in Nabeul, Tunisia from 8 to 12 November 2023 I would like to invite you all to be part of this prestigious archery event to take place in the Northern part of Africa in 2023.

The Cap Bon region is a vast garden where orange and lemon trees put out their flowers at the beginning of Spring, its beaches of fine sand are among the most beautiful in Tunisia.

The principal town of Cap Bon, Nabeul is famous for its pottery, its rush mats, and its flower essences, the fishing port of Kelibia, the thermal springs of Korbous, and the falconers of El Haouaria are just a few of the curiosities found in the region.

Tunisia and the friendly people of Nabeul are expecting to welcome you soon.

Looking forward to seeing you all in November!

Sincerely yours,

Ridha MANAI
LOC President

ABOUT TUNISIA

There are many good places to visit in Nabeul and around it such as the following:

Friguia Park (53 minutes by car)

Visit Friguia Park, one of the largest zoos in North Africa. On an area of about 36 hectares, there live more than 56 species of animals, including giraffes, monkeys, ostriches, leopards, lions, servos, and pink flamingos. The attraction is also seal shows and the possibility of feeding animals. Friguia Park is an ideal place to spend free time among animals and beautiful nature.

AZURE CITY SHOPPING CENTRE (30 minutes by car)

Azur City, a shopping center with innovative architecture, is the number 1 shopping and leisure destination in Tunisia. It will have an exceptional location to the south of Tunis (governorate of Ben Arous) with direct access from the A1 motorway and will offer the most complete range of shops and leisure activities. Important catchment area and strategic location: more than 8 million visitors are expected/per year, including more than 1.5 million inhabitants within

Version 1.1 (09 08 2023)

SOUKS AND PANORAMAS (Nabeul)

In Nabeul, stroll through the souk surrounded by arcades and boutiques.

In the Artisanal Village, experienced artisans will astound you with their ingenuity, ironwork, rush mats, embroidered clothing, and engraved copper.

In the pottery stores, choose a beautiful vase in multicolored ceramic, the local specialty.

The covered market will make your mouth water with its collection of spices, fruits, vegetables, and fish.

Tunis - Carthage - Sidi Bou Said (60 mins. by car)

Sightseeing of Tunis city center: walk along narrow medina streets with characteristic architecture of the old town and local shops. Drive to Carthage - today's Tunisian district, where you'll find a presidential residence and villas of Tunisian elites, and in antiquity, the center of the Phoenician Empire. Lunch break. Visit the remains of a huge complex of Antoninus thermal baths, located by the sea, the Amphitheatre, and the Punic tombs. Drive to Sidi Bou Said, a hilltop town of artists, captivating with white-blue houses along cobbled streets.

The amphitheater of El Jem (60 mins. by car)

One of the best preserved and largest in the entire Roman empire, the amphitheater of El Jem is a major symbol of the height of Roman Africa, which added its own particular touch to Roman culture. It is also a prime example of the best of Roman architecture and sheds valuable light on those moments of collective madness that constituted the Roman games.
