Members

Germany

A new performance centre was officially opened on 8 October in Wiesbaden/Frankfurt am Main, in presence of World Archery president, city mayor and German archery federation's president. An all-inclusive building equipped with the highest environmental standards, the Federal Shooting Sports Centre will be home for the national team, but also for coach education and other courses. It was also designed as a Paralympic training centre for archery and shooting.

Argentina

On 4 September, Diego Ardober and Oscar Gamari were elected president and secretary general of the Argentinian archery federation for terms until September 2023.

Poland

On 4 September, Jozef Basciuk was elected as president of the Polish archery federation for a term until September 2024.

Para archery

New format

At its last meeting, the executive board accepted para archery committee's proposal to replace team events (three athletes) with doubles, applicable from 15 January 2022. Such a format is more adapted to the number of participants in the discipline, few countries being able to enter teams of three archers in some divisions. It should allow more female and W1 participation, and more countries in team events. The World Archery Para Championships in Dubai in February will award the first world titles in doubles.

Award

Iranian para archer Zahra Nemati received the 2021 International Women's Day Recognition trophy during the latest board meeting of her national Paralympic committee. She, who won a third consecutive Paralympic gold medal at Tokyo 2020, has recently been elected as new member of the IPC athletes' council and World Archery's para archery committee.

Events

Indoor World Series

World Archery's indoor circuit in 2022 will include the traditional stages of Nimes International Tournament and Vegas Shoot in January and February, as well as a day of finals on 5 February in Las Vegas.

Olympic Solidarity

Programmes 2021-2024

Guidelines for Olympic Solidarity 2021-2024 programmes that might be relevant for archery federations are now available for download. The closest deadline for National Olympic Committees is 30 October to submit applications for Paris 2024 athletes' scholarships. Archery federations are encouraged to reach out to discuss possibilities for their archers.
